

HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR ENGLISH SPEAKING SKILLS AND VOCABULARY

Listen to English radio shows and focus on the pronunciation. Practice by talking with friends about what you heard on the shows.

Find a friend who can practice with you a few times a week and commit to only speaking English when conversing.

Read news, articles and books in English.

Use a dictionary or Google Translate to learn new words. Practice using those words in a sentence with your friends and family.

Watch English movies with subtitles or listen to a podcast about a topic you're interested in.

Listen to English songs or watch video clips on TV or YouTube and sing along.

Listen to audio books and read along with the voiceover.

Give yourself a target to learn five new words per day. Take notes to stay accountable to yourself.
